HOOKS SLAY KNIGHTS 13-5

Issue 15

5/19/2009

The average game we wanted happened. The Hooks won by 8 and they only allowed their usual average of 5 runs.

The 1st inning was as usual with a single from Wilson and Sewell, and then a double from Towne, scoring Wilson and Sewell. Foshee doubled and scored Towne. Patton and Epkins singled and then Little doubled and drove both in. Knight singled and we have 7 runs with "NO" outs. The Knights score 3 runs off 5 errors and leave the bases loaded. Score: 7-3 Hooks after 1 inning of play.

The 2nd inning, the Hooks go down 1-2-3 and we start to worry. The Knights could only muster up 1 run and we are now 7-4 Hooks.

In the 3rd, the top of the line up went to work. Wilson tripled, Sewell singled and drove Wilson in. Towne singled then Foshee doubled and then Patton scored Towne, and that was it: 3 runs on 6 hits. The defense held on with three good plays from Epkins, Towne and Knight. The score is 10-4 in favor of the Hooks.

In the 4th, the Hooks were held. The Knights scored 1 run. Score 10-5 Hooks

The Hooks needed 3 runs to put it away. Wilson singled Sewell doubled and Towne was at the plate. Towne hit a long ball to left field and rounded the bases, scoring 3 runs—game over. Hooks win 13-5!

The next game is against the Redwings, who are 1 game behind the Hooks. We cannot afford a loss. The Rockhounds lost and the door is open. We control our destiny. Go Hooks!

fense and solid hitting wins. The team with the least errors wins."

Now it's down to who makes the least mistakes, because both teams want it. The Hooks and Redwings can win the championship. Between the Hooks, Redwings and Rockhounds, the team that wins out wins it all. All three teams have a chance and anything can happen.

Let all pull extra hard for the Hooks. GO HOOKS!

Its Up To Us Now!

Well sometimes when the planets line up and you get the breaks you need, you get one more chance. The Hooks have it now, with a win over the Redwings. The Redwings, in the last five games, are averaging 18 runs a game and are red hot, only letting their opponents score 6 runs per game. They are the hottest team in the entire league. We asked Coach Towne how he will stop them.

"You don't stop them, you can only slow them down. We hope to just score one more run than they do. We can win if we control the ball when hit, have less than 5 errors, hit .600 or better and keep our cool. We are the home team. I wish we were the visitors so we could hit first and score 5 or 6 and shake them up. Good de-
